

I am writing condemn
the Sinclair
Broadcasting
Company's decision
to to engage in
naked partisan
politics in the final days of the presidential campaign. Such a broadcast is in violation of the company's public
trust and does a
profound disservice,
both to its viewers
and the democratic process.

I urge the FCC to
hold Sinclair
accountable and
ensure it complies
with its obligations
regarding the use of the public airwaves.
